About the Show

Hundreds of years ago when the great Tanglewood Forest spread across the land, and humans could walk freely between this world and that of the fairies, there lived a mischievous little faun and two kind hearted pixies...

Let Faustus the faun and his two sidekicks tell you the story of Butterball and the Troll, Anansi, The Swamp Prince, and many more.

This delightful theatre show brings to life lesser known folk tales from around the world by combining storytelling, dance and puppetry.

Suitable for ages 3 to 11.

About Dread Falls Theatre

Dread Falls Theatre are proud makers of devised theatre; inspired by folk tales and fairy stories we combine puppetry, physical storytelling and unusual spaces to create magical and imaginative worlds.

We are a theatre of the senses, so expect colourful and creative sets, tactile puppets, lavish costumes, smells and scents that hang in the air, and stories told through space.

Since forming in 2011 we have combined the talents of performers, musicians, puppeteers and puppet makers, set and costume designers, composers, sound and lighting engineers, storytellers, and multimedia artists to ensure we continue making high quality, risk-taking, and unique work, where audience experience is at the heart of what we do.
